BRIDGEWAY

Important Notice About Prior Criminal Convictions

Applicant, Employee, Intern, Volunteer Who is Applying For Position That Will Provide Direct Care

We are a facility that cares for people with disabilities, and, as such, we cannot knowingly employ or retain any individual who performs direct care for clients, patients, or residents if that person has been convicted of committing or of attempting to commit one or more of the offenses listed below. Under Bridgeway policy, an offer of employment and continued employment in a direct care position, internship or volunteer assignment by this facility is conditioned upon a finding of no prior criminal convictions, such as those listed below.

We are required by law, under the Criminal Background Check Act, to obtain a fingerprint based on the criminal record background check, pursuant to the Uniform Conviction Information Act (UCIA) before we may retain a direct-care provider as an employee. In addition, Bridgeway follows a policy to check the criminal background of any individual who serves as a volunteer, intern, or in a direct care position once an offer has been extended. You will receive a copy of this report when we have obtained it.

We may not retain you, if the fingerprint-based background check shows that you have been convicted of one or more of the offenses listed below.

You will be contacted by Human Resources in the event you receive an adverse report. You may request a waiver, within 5 days of receipt of an adverse report.

If the waiver of the prohibition against employment is granted, the facility has the option, but not the obligation, to retain you.

THE CRIMES WHICH PROHIBIT INDIVIDUALS WHO HAVE BEEN CONVICTED FROM BEING RETAINED BY THIS FACILITY UNLESS A WAIVER IS GRANTED INCLUDE BUT MAY NOT BE LIMITED TO:

1. Murder, solicitation of murder, solicitation of murder for hire, homicide, manslaughter or concealment of a homicidal death;
2. Kidnapping or child abduction, indecent solicitation of a child, sexual exploitation of a child, exploitation of a child, child pornography;
3. Unlawful restraint or forcible detention;
4. Assault, battery or infliction of great bodily harm, heinous battery, tampering with food, drugs, or cosmetics, home invasion, predatory criminal sexual assault of a child;
5. Sexual assault or sexual abuse;
6. Abuse or gross neglect of a long term care facility resident;
7. Criminal abuse or neglect of a child, an elderly or disabled person;
8. Theft, financial exploitation of an elderly or disabled person, robbery or burglary;
9. Forgery
10. Criminal trespass;
11. Vehicular hijacking, aggravated vehicular hijacking, aggravated robbery;
12. Armed violence – elements of offense;
13. Arson;
14. Unlawful use of weapons or aggravated discharge of a firearm;
15. Manufacture, delivery or trafficking of cannabis;
16. Manufacture, delivery or trafficking of controlled substances.

Important Notice About Prior Criminal Convictions
Applicant, Employee, Intern, Volunteer Who is Applying For Position Not Providing Direct Care

You may qualify for employment in a position at Bridgeway for which there are no legally required exclusions for persons with an arrest or conviction history. Bridgeway may nevertheless perform a criminal background check on you after you receive a conditional offer of employment but before you are cleared to begin work.

Not every arrest or criminal conviction will disqualify an individual for employment at Bridgeway. In evaluating a person's history, Bridgeway will take into account:

The nature and gravity of the offense. This includes the harm created by the crime and whether the crime was serious (a felony) or less serious (misdemeanors).

The time that has passed. Bridgeway will consider whether there has been a substantial passage of time since conviction or completion of a sentence with no further criminal conduct.

The nature of the job sought. Positions where employees have access to client financial information and property are obviously more sensitive than those which do not involve such factors. Similarly, jobs where employees interact with the public with limited supervision can be sensitive positions.

Before an individual is excluded from employment because of past criminal conduct, Bridgeway will assess relevant individualized factors, which may include but not necessarily limited to:

- The facts and circumstances surrounding the offense or conduct
- The number of offenses for which an individual was convicted
- Age at the time of conviction or release from prison
- Post-conviction work record with no known incidents of criminal conduct
- Rehabilitation efforts including education and training
- Any information regarding an individual's fitness for a position
- Whether an individual is bonded

We may ask for your assistance in securing the information necessary to complete our evaluation of your background. If you fail to cooperate, Bridgeway will make a decision based upon the best information available to it.
